Overview

We love the fact that we're different, right down to our local take on design. We're all about the neighbourhoods we're in and we take every opportunity to share them with our guests.

Hotel Indigo combines the individuality of a boutique hotel with the consistency and reliability of a branded hotel. We go out of our way to make our neighbourhoods easy to discover and appreciate.

The neighbourhood setting, modern design and our commitment to inspired service are what set Hotel Indigo apart. That is why we appeal to the upscale guest who is well-travelled, has an eye for design, an appreciation for art and is looking for something different.
